

THE GREAT OUTDOORS NEVER TASTED SO GOOD

At Wine4Food.com, we're all about finding the perfect pairing. Whether you're beaching, boating, picnicking, or glamping ('cause who really wants to camp), here's your definitive list of wines to enhance your summer fun.

*Written by Carole Mac
@carole.mac*

BEACHING WITH CASTELLO DELLE REGINE ROSÉ

Now that the weather is warm and we are free, we must hit the beach! My favorite accompaniment to a sandy spot with a big shady umbrella is robust Rosé. This Italian bottle from Umbria does the trick with notes of ripe strawberry and violet.

BOATING WITH CLARA BENEGAS CHARDONNAY

When you're on the water, why not chart a new course and explore Chardonnay from an unexpected region. Before Malbec was a thing, Argentina was known for Chardonnay. Try this one from Mendoza, and you won't be disappointed with its crisp, unoaked flavors of passionfruit and citrus.

GLAMPING WITH CAVE DE RIBEAUVILLÉ OSTERBERG RIESLING

I don't know about you, but I love gazing as the stars on a warm summer night. If you're glamping, there's no commute home. And since you've already taken your experience up a notch over camping, pack this stellar Grand Cru Riesling with notes of exotic mango and honey from Osterburg for a special treat. Because you're fancy

WANT TO LEARN MORE ABOUT WINE AT HOME?

Enjoy our fun, informative new series, Somm School Insider, following Wine4Food's Carole Mac's journey inside the Sommelier Society of America. To watch these short, shareable episodes, visit @wine_4_food.

PICNICKING WITH LOGIS DE BRAY ANJOU ROUGE

Nothing says summer like a picnic in the park. Next time you pack your basket, include this crowd-pleasing Anjou Rouge with soft cheeses and spicy salami for an unforgettable treat. Feel free to bring multiple bottles, since this beauty with cherry and raspberry notes comes from Loire, one of France's more affordable regions for reds.

